

National Summit for Educational Equity

April 8-11, 2024

Inclusive Career Pathways: Navigating the Road to Success

The range of topics that relate to equity provide a wide spectrum of learning experiences - from the mind-changing, 30,000-foot view on issues of race, gender and society - to the nitty-gritty details of how to structure a classroom to accommodate a student with a particular disability. - Summit attendee

The National Alliance for Partnerships in Equity \(NAPE\) annual Summit brings together education and workforce leaders, researchers, practitioners, and advocates to increase our collective ability to create education systems where every student succeeds and is prepared to earn a thriving wage.

The Summit will emphasize high-skill, high-wage, in-demand workforce opportunities in Career and Technical Education (CTE) and Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM). Sponsors include industry, education, and non-profit organizations committed to opportunities for every student.
